Mississippi Citizenship.
Report of the Committee on Citizenship in Convention.—Mr. Brooke, from the committee on Citizenship, submitted the following report to the Convention, which it ordained by the people of the State of Mississippi, in Convention Assembled, That citizens of the United States domiciled in this State on the adoption of the manoe of secession, viz: January 9th, be regarded as citizens of Mississippi, and to all the rights and privileges, subject to all the liabilities incident etc. And be it further ordered that all white persons born within the limits of the United States, or made citizens shall become citizens of this State according to the Constitution and laws of State now in force, and as to all others coming into this State with the intent aforesaid, the present naturalization laws of the United States shall apply and have full force, except that their oath of allegiance shall be taken to the State of Mississippi, instead of to the United States; and all such persons who have made their declaration of intention of becoming citizens of the State of Mississippi, the States or Territories of the United States, may, at the expiration of the time prescribed by the naturalization laws, perfect their naturalization in the courts of record in this State.

Important Ordinance.

The Convention, on yesterday, by a large majority, passed an Ordinance reported by the Military Committee to provide for the of the United States Government, or actual invasion of Alabama, by any force or power whatever, there shall be raised several regiments—cavalry, artillery and infantry, and such other troops shall comprise an efficient army—to remain for three years or less. Also, authorize the Governor to accept and call into service such number of volunteers as the exigencies of the times may require, to remain for such length of time as may be the Alabama force, to be under the direction and control of the Governor, for the selection of such Brigadiers, Generals, Adjutant, and Quartermasters, and an Ordnance officer, &c., as the exigencies of the times may require. Said commissioned officers to receive the pay of officers of similar grade and arm of service in the United States Army, and United States "Army Regulations" by Jefferson Davis to be maintained so far as practicable.

Ordinance of Secession, passed on the 9th, to control the Alabama forces, &c.—The Ordinance may be altered or amended by the next General Assembly, and all laws may be withdrawn from the service at the discretion of the Governor. The Ordinance was reported by Hon. J. M. Clemens, Chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs, who advocated its adoption in a brief but forcible and eloquent speech.

Occupation of Fort Macomb.
The Mobile Advertiser of Thursday

Two companies of the Racachas, about a hundred men strong, have received orders to proceed to Eort Macomb, situated twenty miles from the city, on the Bayou Chef Menteur, which links Lake Borgne with Lake Ponchartrain, and has its main fork Bayou Gentilly, or Suze. Bayou Chef Menteur, though narrow, is very deep, and might be chosen by an enemy coming through Lake Borgne to reach Lake Ponchartrain. But with Forts Greve and Macomb in our hands, the

LOUISVILLE COURIER
FOR Eighteen Hundred and Sixty-One.

THE events of the year before us will be fraught with a greater interest to the people of the whole country than those of the existing period through which we have just passed—a thrilling in their nature and as important in their results as they have been. For the first time in the history of our country, a political party, purely and strictly sectional, has succeeded in electing the Chief Executive officer of the nation, and thus obtained control of one department of the Federal Government. This has alarmed the people of the other section, and precipitated more or less of a party feeling.

of the Union. The whole country is so deeply interested in the welfare of the people of all the States alike—are deeply and equally interested in what concerns the welfare of every American citizen, whether in the North or the South, and whether at home or abroad. We are evidently surrounded by perils of a magnitude—dangers that may be thrust upon us in the terrible reality that may befall us. No man worthy of the name of a citizen can be ignorant of events now daily occurring in all parts of the country; and of knowledge of these matters can best be obtained through such a newspaper as the WASHINGTON GAZETTE.

Only the noblest citizens, the noblest, or about to transpire, in which our people must take deep interest. On the First Monday in December,

CONGRESS WILL ASSEMBLE.

And never, in the history of the country, has more important duties devolved upon the Representatives of the people. How far it will be the last Congress of the people of the States of North America. At any rate, the next Congress of that body will be one of great interest, and its proceedings will be watched with much anxiety. Full telegraphic reports and other reliable information will be laid promptly before the readers of the LOUISVILLE COURIER.

During the next year, JOHN A. LOGAN will be inaugurated President of the United States, or of a portion of them, and a new policy will control the country. In the event of a secession of a portion of the Southern States, it may be that those who opposed the war against the rebels would have "welcomed our gallant soldiers with open arms to hospitals and graves," will attempt to divide the spoils of the captured bayonet. Civil war, desperate, bloody, may follow. It will be our province to furnish the latest and most reliable news to the readers of the LOUISVILLE WEEKLY COURIER; and to subscribe to it can rely on getting better and more reliable information than they rely on any other means of obtaining information.

And abroad, as at home, great events will mark the coming year, wars, commotions, reforms, all affecting, more or less, the happiness of the people of the civilized world. The LOUISVILLE WEEKLY COURIER will be glad to furnish the latest and most reliable arrangements will enable us to keep the public fully advised and correctly informed.

And while doing all that can be done, due to the just preparation of the WEEKLY COURIER as a NEWSPAPER,

We are determined to make it, as we are well prepared to do, the

REAL INFORMATION PAPER.

In the West, furnishing the patrons we wish and accurate reports of the "Market" in all the principal cities in the country.

ITS AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT

Will be well filled with choice matter, originally prepared for other columns, worth, of itself, more than the price of the paper to any agriculturist in the country.

To tell it all in all, we are proud to assure our old friends and the people of the country that the

WEEKLY COURIER

Will continue to be the HANDSOMEST, THE BEST, THE CHEAPEST, THE MOST RELIABLE and THE MOST PLEASANT FAMILY NEWSPAPER published in Kentucky.

D. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE
RESTORATIVE PILLS of IRON.

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhæa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tubercularis, Salt Rheum, Menses Irregular, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Intermittent Fevers, Rheumatism, Pimples on the Face, &c.

IN CASES OF GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of the nervous energy from chronic complaints, one trial of the following is successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids, and the riders as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from a distant land. Some very singular instances of this have been observed. Sufferer is associated victim of apoplectic marasmus, sanguineous-exhaustion, critical changes, and the like. The following is a prescription for diet and exercise for which the physician is not no name.

THE ATTRIBUTES of all kinds of iron and ferrous salts are familiar to medical men, the operation of these salts in the preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic and invigorating, and it is not, as the old oxides are, irregularly astringent, even in the most obstinate case of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effective and permanent in the treatment of Piles, upon which it also appears to act in a distinct and powerful manner, dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

IN DYSPEPSIA, indigestible as are the causes, it is the best remedy, and it is the only one which is suited for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Dysenteria.

It is unobscured by the acids, even when advanced to the stage of Dysenteria, confirmed, even when advanced ently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

It is also noted that the loss of weight and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCURABLE CONSUMPTION, this remedy has been found to remove, and the physicians in several very troubling and interesting cases.

IN SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the usual effect of the most valuable remedies, and has been found to be one of any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too carefully directed to the effects of this medicine as a restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

IN RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory, this remedy, however used, decidedly—it has been invariably well reported to—has been found to relieve the most distressing pains, and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

Even in the cases of rest pumice and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be a matter of time before it is a failure.

No remedy has ever been discovered so wholesome, complete and safe as this. It is a tonic, a stimulant, a purgative, a blood purifier, a restorative, and with an annual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Complete relief of all ailments of strength, at a price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the enclosed card.
